Relatório do médico diz que Lawrence Hecker, ex-padre de Nova Orleans acusado de estupro, tem demência

O julgamento de Hecker por estupro e sequestro está marcado para 24 de setembro

Um relatório de um médico súbito diz que Lawrence Hecker, o ex-padre de Nova Orleans que enfrenta acusações de estupro de um adolescente depois de estrangulá-lo até ficar inconsciente apostas de bacará 1975, tem demência. No entanto, o relatório não menciona nada sobre a aptidão de Hecker para comparecer apostas de bacará julgamento.

Na sextuplicação de ouvindo e sem uma determinação definitiva sobre a aptidão de Hecker para comparecer apostas de bacará julgamento, o juiz Benedict Willard marcou o julgamento de Hecker por acusações de estupro e sequestro para o dia 24 de setembro.

target="self" title="Relacionado: 'Não foi de grande importância': um depoimento secreto revela como um padre molestor de crianças foi protegido por apostas de bacará igreja">

O relatório da psiquiatra da corte, Sarah Deland, é Traz mais peso para a comissão de sanidade, e tanto os promotores quanto os advogados de defesa de Hecker passaram a manhã esperando que Deland terminasse seu trabalho. Depois que o julgamento foi adiado, Deland compareceu ao tribunal de Willard e disse ao juiz: "Na próxima vez você será o primeiro."

Jason Williams, o promotor de justiça do condado de Orleans, disse que leu o relatório de Deland e acredita que isso significa que Hecker é apto. Ele disse que o novo diagnóstico de demência de Russo é irrelevante para o que é conhecido como o critério Bennett para determinar se um réu entende as acusações contra ele e pode auxiliar na própria defesa.

Williams disse que deseja processar o caso apostas de bacará setembro. No entanto, sem uma determinação final sobre a aptidão de Hecker para auxiliar na própria defesa, Willard disse: "Se ele for apto, teremos julgamento no dia 24 de setembro."

Se não, essa data de julgamento pode ser convertida apostas de bacará outra atualização sobre o status de Hecker.

"Este é o mais perto que obtivemos para criar responsabilidade quando eu vou faz*arefa do meu melhor para garantir que nós podemos", disse Williams.

Williams culp whel defense for causing delays in the case, but Hecker's attorneys, Eugene Redmann and Matthew McLaren, said they haven't stood in the way of a final ruling and a trial. They said they want a decision on their client's competency as soon as possible, so he won't have to remain in custody and under armed guard at a long-term care facility.

Meanwhile, Williams has been hailed by survivors of child sexual abuse for pursuing the case against Hecker and fighting to get the church's secret files on the former priest. WWL Louisiana and the Guardian recently told the story of Greg Livaudais, who also accused Hecker of kidnapping and sexually abusing him during a trip to a scouting retreat in 1974, but could not get DAs in other parishes to press charges.

It is too late under Louisiana law to file child molestation charges from the 1980s and earlier, but there is no statute of limitations on aggravated rape or kidnapping. In Livaudais's case, he claimed Hecker held him against his will in West Feliciana and East Baton Rouge parishes, but the DAs there did not file kidnapping charges.

Aaron Hebert, who filed a civil lawsuit alleging Hecker fondled his genitals when he was a child in 1968, came to court on Thursday and shook Williams's hand as the DA left the courthouse.

"I thanked him for at least taking this case on, because no other DA would take this case on in the parishes that Hecker represented with the archdiocese," Hebert said.

In his August 2024 interview with WWL and the Guardian, Hecker spoke at length about why he thought he was free to do what he had done because of the "sexual revolution" and acknowledged that he now knew it was wrong and was "truly repentant". Williams has repeatedly said Hecker's interview was proof that he was competent to stand trial.

In that same interview, Hecker quickly and emphatically denied ever having "unwilling" sex with anyone. Confronted with his written statement from 1999, he said he remembered the boys with whom he admitted engaging in "overtly sexual acts".

Hecker was indicted and arrested in September, just two weeks after that interview. He walked unassisted to a vehicle that took him to jail. But in mid-January, he was rushed to intensive care, and in court hearings since then his defense attorneys said he had experienced mental decline, disorientation and a number of physical ailments. He was later transferred to a long-term care facility while held in custody in lieu of the R$800,000 bail.
