While it might seem unusual that Bellator MMA is partnering with an international wing of the UFC's domestic broadcast TV partner, Bjorn Rebney said the relationship came about quite naturally.

"FOX reached out to us and started these conversations months ago about the potential of developing this deal," Rebney told MMAjunkie.com.

The promotion on Tuesday announced a partnership with FOX Sports Latin America that covers 50 million homes in 19 Latin American countries, including Brazil.

The deal calls for taped programming through 2014 and 25 live "in-territory" events annually starting in 2015.

The news came as something of a surprise given the UFC's relationship with FOX, which is in the second year of a seven-year broadcast deal with the promotion.

The UFC is one of seven "pillars" of sports programming on the new FOX Sports 1 cable network, which airs its live events and shoulder programming.

In Latin America, the UFC is partnered in Brazil with Globo and in Mexico (and other territories) with Televisa.

Yet the new alliance between Bellator and FOX came as a surprise to one of the Viacom-owned promotion's most vocal critics, UFC President Dana White, who on Tuesday told MMAjunkie.com he would look into how the partnership came about in spite of the Las Vegas-based UFC's prominent role with FOX.

For Rebney, though, the answer is simple.

"You'd have to assume, given their size and the magnitude of FOX's deal with the UFC here domestically, that if they wanted an alliance in those international markets, I'm sure those doors were open to them," he said.

"But we were able to make it work."

The executive said the partnership came to fruition through a longstanding contact from Bellator's days on FOX Sports Net, which broadcast the tournament-based promotion's second season.

"I had a lot of allies and friends over there, and months ago, one of them reached out to me and said, 'Bjorn, I've taken this all the way up the totem pole, and we would be very interested in sitting down with you,'" he said.

With existing TV deals, Bellator is seen in over 135 countries, but Rebney said the partnership with FOX Latin America significantly increases the promotion's profile in Brazil, which he calls the No.

2 international market in MMA.

Bellator programming on TV Esporte Interativo, the promotion's current TV partner in Brazil, draws north of 2 million viewers per show, Rebney said.

But that could increase with live event programming, which he said kicks in when the TV Esporte Interativo loses the rights to live shows in 2015.

He said there are no concrete plans as to when and where the events broadcast on FOX Latin America will be held.

"Maybe we'll kick off a season down there so we get the necessary prep time," he said.

"Maybe we'll do that 'Road to the Championship' week before and after there.

Maybe we'll do the 'Summer Series' down there, or create unique standalone sequencing of events over a three- to four-week [period] where we hit major markets in a collection of three or four different countries.

We're still working through the logistics now."

Clearly, though, Bellator is making headway under unique circumstances.

"[The new deal] sends a message that FOX has made a decision to work with Bellator in this incredibly important region, and from a Bellator-centric perspective, that's a spectacular message," Rebney said.

París: La Ciudad de la Luz

París, la Ciudad de la Luz, sigue siendo un destino encantador, histórico y romántico. Con dos victorias consecutivas en la encuesta de Euromonitor International sobre las ciudades más atractivas del mundo, París lidera en turismo, sostenibilidad, rendimiento económico y seguridad y salud. En julio y agosto de 2024, París será la anfitriona de los Juegos Olímpicos y Paralímpicos, 100 años después de la última vez que los Juegos se llevaron a cabo en suelo francés.

Una restauración milagrosa

La catedral de Notre-Dame, un símbolo de la historia y la cultura de París, sufrió un devastador incendio en abril de 2024. Afortunadamente, la fachada principal, el órgano, todos los vitrales y las obras de arte solo sufrieron daños menores. Gracias a la labor de 2000 escultores, albañiles, carpinteros y artistas, la catedral reabrirá sus puertas en diciembre de 2024, cinco años después del siniestro. Un milagro de la restauración que ha dejado a la catedral prácticamente idéntica a su estado original.

La ciudad de los muertos

Bajo la superficie de París, en el distrito de Montparnasse, se encuentran las catacumbas, donde seis millones de almas descansan en una de las mayores fosas comunes del mundo. Un recordatorio de los que habitaron la ciudad en los últimos 10 siglos.

La ciudad del placer

El Moulin Rouge, el lugar de nacimiento del can-can, sigue siendo un icono de la vida nocturna parisina. Sus bailarinas, ataviadas con espectaculares trajes adornados con más de tres kilómetros de plumas de avestruz, siguen deslumbrando al público con sus espectáculos.

La ciudad de la comida

La comida es una parte integral de la cultura francesa y los parisinos no escatiman esfuerzos para mantener viva la tradición de la panadería artesanal. La baguette, reconocida por la UNESCO como patrimonio cultural, es un símbolo de la paciencia y el amor por la artesanía que caracteriza a la cultura francesa.

La ciudad del amor

La Torre Eiffel, el símbolo más emblemático de París y Francia, ofrece vistas impresionantes de la ciudad. Su creador, Gustave Eiffel, se negó a alquilar su pequeño apartamento en la cima de la torre, prefiriendo reservarlo para reuniones científicas y familiares.
