!The objective is To make the best possible five-card hand; Using Any combination of 5 cards from the 52-card deck. The game is divided into two main phases: the pre-flop phase and the post-flop phase. In the pre-flop phase, players are dealt two private cards (hole cards) and five community cards (the flop, turn, and river) are dealt. The post-flop phase is where the action takes place, with players betting and raising based on their hand strength and the community cards. The game ends when all players have folded or when a showdown occurs, where the best hand wins the pot.
